

ALL IS WELL

June 25 — June 27, 2021

With Karim Noverraz and Elmer Koole

At Universel Murad Hasil, Katwijk, Netherlands

The Great Silent Presence and our own silent presence meet, and though they were never separate, experiencing their meeting is what roots us in the source of existence.

Pir Elias Amidon

The wise one, by studying nature, enters into unity through its variety, and realizes the personality of God by sacrificing his own.

Hazrat Inayat Khan

How can it be that all is well when a pandemic is raging around the world? How can it be that we are completely free and deeply connected despite lockdown and curfew? How can it be that we can feel safe and taken care of despite this virulent and disruptive disease ?

In this retreat we will explore how the answer to these questions naturally arises in the tranquillity of open awareness through silence, musical meditations and deep conversation (sohbet). The opening quality of the natural beauty of the sea and the dunes will guide us to the realization that we really are safe and connected and that ultimately All is Well.

Karim is a teacher within the Sufi Way and he leads a Sufi centre in the south of France. Together with his wife, he has facilitated several pilgrimages to Turkey and led weekend retreats about music and non-duality. He is a passionate musician with a deep interest in jazz and all Sufi musical traditions.

Elmer is a teacher within the Sufi Way and has facilitated a variety of programmes related to Sufism. He has recently completed his training as a Vision Quest guide and has facilitated outdoor quests. He has done a MSC in Ecology and his professional life has been dedicated to conservation issues and international cooperation
